We, the Class of 1956, dedicate THE
SHIPBUILDER to Gerald Wadsworth Davis, a classmate who although no longer here, will stay among us in spirit as long as we ourselves shall live. No person can ever die as long as he lives in the hearts of his friends.

*Your friendly words and constant smile
With gladness we recall:
You had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all.*

*We miss you as the days go by
But yet in truth you're here,
For friends make souls eternal things
In absence or when near.*

*You're not forgotten as our friend,
Nor will you ever be;
For you will live within our hearts
A cherished memory.*

GERALD WADSWORTH DAVIS
IN MEMORIAM

Superintendent
MR. CLIFTON E. BRADLEY

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Seated: Mrs. William B. Armstrong, Mr. Wilder A. Gaudette, Mrs. Ernest H. Knight. Standing: Mr. Ernest W. Haskins, Jr., Mrs. John H. Sparrell. Inset: Mrs. W. Rodney Cole, deceased.

FREDERICK A. SMALL, Principal

MRS. ROY BAKER, Secretary

To the Class of 1956:

During the years you have developed abilities and established knowledges that permit you a certain facility in composition, a certain ease with the algebraic and geometric, a certain familiarity with foreign languages, a certain deftness with cloth and wood, a certain insight into things scientific and historic. In short, you have acquired an amount of the wisdom of the world.

Will you now, if you please, develop a talent for living.

Learn to live graciously and generously. Mold the variously accumulated end products of a public-school education into a personality that will be radiant with high purpose and endeavor; one that will strive to dispel the shadows of mediocrity and meanness from a world that so desperately needs the understanding mind, the full heart, and the courage of youth.

May your talent for living be a means to happiness and success in the drama of unfolding days.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

In the 1956 Shipbuilder the staff has tried to present a representative cross-section of Norwell High School. The mechanics of publishing a year-book are indeed trying and it is most suitable that we extend to Mrs. Vose, our senior advisor, sincerest thanks for her continual help and instruction.

The staff had great difficulty in securing the ship scenes which are used as chapter divisions. Suitable pictures were finally found in the 1956-1957 Coronet Seascape Calendars. We sincerely thank the Esquire Calendar Division for graciously permitting us to publish them.

Most of our photography work was done by the Warren Kay Vantine Studios. We thank Mr. Gene Manchester of the Balfour Printing Co., Mrs. Richard Cash of Alston Studios, and the Pitman Publishing Co. for their help with our photographs. The staff appreciates the artwork furnished by Mr. Albert, Mr. Wilson, Ann Wilson, and Paul Knight.

PRISCILLA JANE OMAN

If you cannot do something you want to do; want to do something you can do.

Honor Society President . . . brains wrapped in a pretty package . . . future social worker . . . “Don’t get me laughing!” . . . ice skating enthusiast . . . Problems, a cinch?

THOMAS EDMUND OSBORNE

Be wise. Soar not too high to fall, but stoop to rise.

"Big Tom" . . . senior chef . . . hot banjo . . . "I must have made a mistake" . . . taxi service . . . does he eat Wheaties? . . . versatile . . . shorten those math tests or lengthen the period.

ROBERTA LOIS PAULSON

To be a nurse is to walk with God.

Bobbe . . . girl in white . . . "Guess who called me! . . . Rainbow girl . . . "Where's Joe?" . . . Girls' High transfer . . . homework's for students . . . flirtatious . . . "Gee" . . . "gym—this period?"

PATRICIA ELIZABETH PORTER

A good appearance is good business.

"Patti" . . . typist . . . "I never have the car!" . . . gum fiend . . . "Shhh" . . . marriage bound . . . "Has anyone seen my freem?" . . . Wentworth fan . . . great author in seventh period study.

THOMAS HARTLEY ROBERTSON

Procrastination is the thief of time.

"Tom" . . . B.O.C. . . . artistic athlete . . . That rusty "40" bucket o' bolts . . . better late than a minute early . . . Casanova . . . Rhythmic feet . . . those parties! . . . motor-mania . . . Cap'n Tom.

FREDERICK WILLIAM SCOTT

You live but once, you should remember this.

"Freddy" . . . Bar Benders M. C. . . . playful in gym . . . terror of highway 123 . . . "Ain't that a —!" . . . class clown . . . never has his class ring long enough to wear it . . . always writing her name!

ELIZABETH JANE TENNEY

Faith is the fulfillment of life.

"Janie" . . . telephone from Illinois . . . giggly . . . Florence Nightingale . . . dependable . . . U. S. Air Force . . . "Oh, that kid brother of mine!" . . . faithful manager . . . always blushing.

NANCY KAREN VARNER

It matters not what you are thought to be; but what you are.

"Nanc" . . . "I'm thirsty" . . . wedding bells . . . bell-bottom blues . . . diet daze . . . gabby . . . clothes galore . . . an anchor around her heart . . . life's ambition is to catch up on typing.
